Questions for Reflection

Questions for Chapter 1: Reflect, Adjust, Do

1. The ability to adapt to a rapidly changing world and church is a critical skill. We are called to continually RAD (reflect, adjust, do) all of our plans and actions without accusation or blame. How is critical reflection, collaboration, and the courage and flexibility to switch directions essential to wise decision-making in your life?
2. How does your church do transformative ministry by discovering both its strengths and limitations and being willing to adapt creatively?
3. David was an unlikely vessel of God's grace who defeated Goliath by strategically compensating for his weaknesses. What do you think about Malcolm Gladwell's counterintuitive statement that "we learn more from compensating for our weaknesses than capitalizing on our strengths"?
4. How does the spiritual discipline of waiting call us to be attentive and sharpen our focus?
5. Has there ever been a time when you have "fallen upward"?
