Questions for Chapter 2:
The Come to Jesus Meeting

1. Have you ever had the experience of someone else second-guessing and making assumptions about your abilities, experiences, or knowledge?
2. Has there ever been a time when you knew that you needed to have a Come to Jesus meeting with another person but were reluctant to be honest about your concerns?
3. Are there times when we are too "nice" in the church, thereby allowing bad behavior to continue?
4. How does taking the initiative to build authentic and transparent relationships break down barriers?
5. In what ways can the church model for the world how to negotiate in good faith in order to move forward?
