

Questions for Reflection

Questions for Chapter 5:
Namaste

1. How might The United Methodist Church and our world be transformed if we looked for God in every person we meet? What might happen if we greeted every person we met by bowing our heads, pressing our hands in front of our hearts, and saying the words, "God's peace be with you"?
2. Mission is at the heart of The United Methodist Church. It is imperative for church leaders to connect congregations to God's work around the world by sharing stories of lives being changed through mission and outreach and also providing opportunities for Christ followers to let their lives speak by committing their time, energy, financial resources, and prayers to hands-on mission. How can we as individuals and as congregations embody grace as we live out our mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world?
3. Knowing that we are all bound together by our common humanity, how does grace empower us to rebuild hope and trust in The United Methodist Church, our country, and our world in the midst of partisan politics at home and among nations?
4. Who is your neighbor?
