Questions for Chapter 6:
The Rest We Have to Take

1. What is the rest that we have to take as leaders and people of faith in order to be effective and fruitful over the long haul?
2. How can leaders allow others the grace to catch their breath before the next task?
3. Are we as Christ followers willing to share and carry the burdens of others?
4. How can we avoid over-functioning and being a quivering mass of availability?
5. How can the church be a place of discovery and hope?
